The Whale Coin Purse

8. Glue the Side fins on the Whale back as shown below

Skill Tips :

In order to get the fins in correct position, you should mark the location of fins with an awl before gluing.

9. Mark the stitch line on the outer edges as indicated in the pattern then cut the lining fabric out and glue on the rough side of Whale Belly and Back

10. Glue and stitch the Whale belly and the Whale back together, (Flesh to Flesh side), from Point A to Point B as indicated in the pattern.

Skill Tips :

Use Point A as a setting out point and try to match the shape between two pieces as much as possible, make sure your stitch is going through the linings and within the edges on both sides.

(It's a bit hard, but you are always welcome to message us when facing any problem)

11. Mark the stitch line from Point B to the end as below

12. Since the Whale back and belly are in different length, you should bend them as below then glue them together.

13. Punch through the stitch mark at the tail.

Skill Tips :

It would be easier if you punch through those marking on the edge of your work table.
