Cover of the pocket

This diagram shows a template for a pocket cover. It is a rectangular piece of material with a semi-circular bottom edge. The entire perimeter of the piece is marked with a series of small circles, indicating where to place stitches or buttons. The text "Cover of the pocket" is printed in the center of the piece.

Cover of the pocket

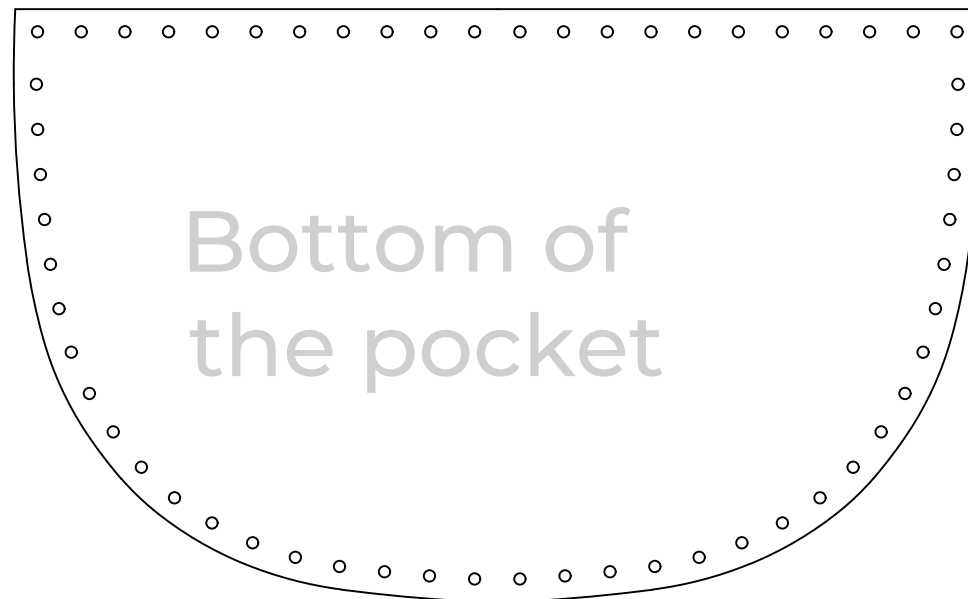

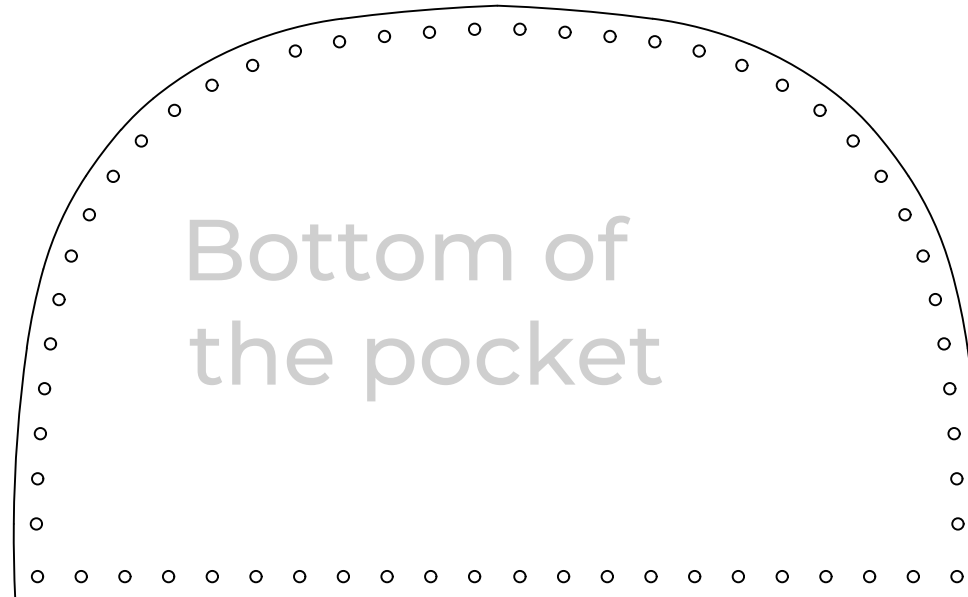

This diagram shows another template for a pocket cover. It is a rectangular piece of material with a semi-circular bottom edge. The entire perimeter of the piece is marked with a series of small circles, indicating where to place stitches or buttons. The text "Cover of the pocket" is printed in the center of the piece.

pocket

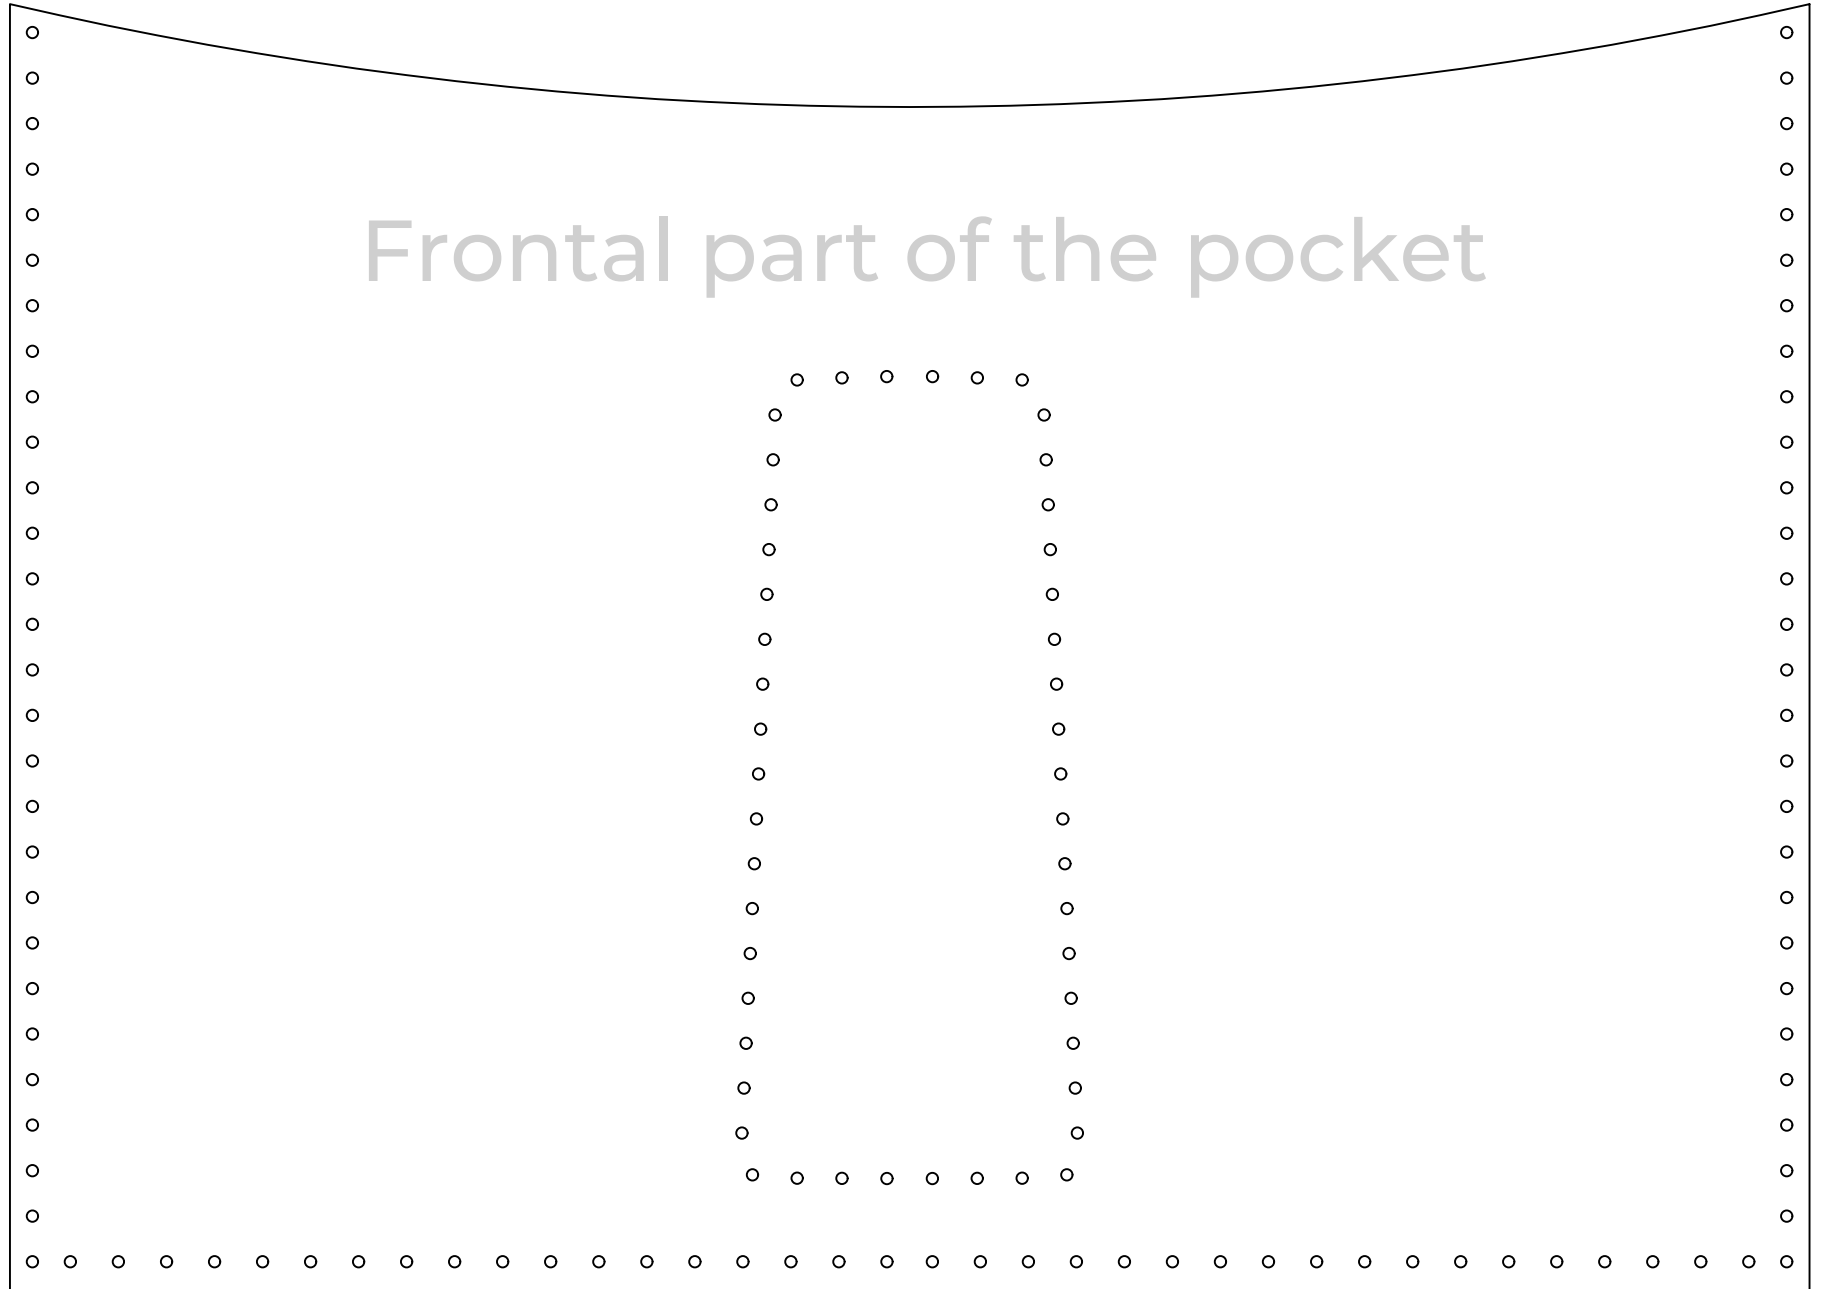

The diagram shows a dashed rectangular border containing two pieces of a pocket cover template. The top piece is a semi-circle with a dotted line along its curved edge and a straight line at the top. The bottom piece is a larger semi-circle with a dotted line along its curved edge and a straight line at the bottom. Both pieces are labeled 'Cover of the pocket' in a light gray font.
